INSEAD / 1, Ayer Rajah Avenue / Singapore 138676

FACULTY

Caroline Bérubé

Managing Partner of HJM Asia Law

Caroline is the Managing partner of HJM Asia Law (with offices in China and Singapore). She is admitted to practice in New York and Singapore and holds a BCL (civil law) and a LL.B (common law) from McGill University, Canada.

She studied Chinese law at the National University of Singapore in the mid 90s and was one of the first foreign lawyers to be admitted to practice in Singapore. Caroline has been working in Asia for more than 22 years with SMEs, MNCs and foreign banks, advising them in the fields of M&A, commercial law and intellectual property. With an extensive presence on the ground in Asia, she is well versed in the opportunities and legal risks associated with most Asian jurisdictions.

Adrian Wong

Partner - CMS Singapore

Adrian is a seasoned energy and infrastructure lawyer. He is qualified in both English and Singapore law. Adrian has advised stakeholders across the energy value chain from oil and gas companies, LNG traders, power generation (conventional and renewables), transmission, petrochemical and construction companies on their projects internationally.

Adrian has provided comprehensive and integrated advice on all aspects of energy and infrastructure project development as well as in relation to acquisitions and disposals. These include advising equity sponsors investing into projects, government authorities granting project concessions; lenders providing project financing (and other forms of financing) to projects, EPC contractors, feedstock and utilities suppliers and potential off-takers and O&M service providers.

In addition to his in depth experience in the conventional energy space, he has an increased focus on "new power" (including storage, energy management and smart grid applications and instruments) as well as renewables projects, including hydro, wind and solar.

Markus Petsche

Associate Professor - Central European University (Budapest)

Markus Petsche is an Associate Professor at the Department of Legal Studies of Central European University (Budapest) where he teaches International Commercial Arbitration, International Investment Law, International Business Transactions, and Private International Law.

He is Of Counsel at Petsche Pollak (Vienna), focusing on complex international commercial disputes. His scholarly work, cited extensively in the relevant literature, has been referred to by the Supreme Court of Oregon and relied upon in litigation before the US Supreme Court. Prior to embarking on an academic career, Markus Petsche served as a deputy counsel at the Secretariat of the International Court of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce and practiced international arbitration with Gide Loyrette Nouel (both in Paris). Markus Petsche regularly serves as arbitrator and mediator in international business disputes.
