LL.M. International Business Law

— SINGAPORE —

Our LL.M. programme deals mainly with practical case studies and certain key subjects with a multidisciplinary approach. It prepares students and professionals for operations such as large acquisitions or market transactions, cross-border mergers, complex financing, restructuring, LBOs, financial engineering, and industrial projects.

These are elaborate operations, offering difficulties that often lead to innovative solution-seeking. Used as educational material, they allow the legal practitioners to study and analyse the legal, financial, or accounting issues they provide. Thus, contracts, guarantees, financing, and international trade litigation, among other essential subjects, are being studied from various angles.

Anne-Victoire DE MIRMAN (2017/18)
Now completing her last year in French Bar School (Paris)

"The LL.M. combines theoretical courses taught by renowned professors, with seminars by enthralling professionals practising in Asia. This dual approach covering a wide spectrum of legal and business issues enabled me to greatly improve my knowledge in International Business Law, and to start a legal career with useful, complementary and strong skills. Moreover, thanks to the LL.M. network, I had the opportunity to get a part-time internship, an amazing professional experience that gave me the chance to deeply understand the practical legal stakes of the prospering APAC market."

Galura WIRAYUDANTO (2017/18)
Now Industrial Relations Specialist at PT. MRT Jakarta

"I found both theoretical and practical full-scale exploration of the knowledge of international business law that I can implement for my future career in and outside of my country. Paris-Panthéon-Assas LL.M. programme brought the best lecturers on each background with extraordinary experience and indisputable module. The assignments provided by the professors truthfully stimulate and build bridges to think as a professional and expert in the scope of international business law."

Georgia DIEDERICHSEN (2018/19)
Now Senior Director / Legal Counsel

"I joined the program at a point in my career that I was becoming too specialized in areas like environmental law, corporate law and other ESG-related issues, and maybe neglecting the fact that there is much more out there. The LL.M. helped me update my knowledge of some things I had only seen during law school and gave me a good understanding of how the legal system works in the EU and in Singapore. The LL.M. was invaluable for me to find a job in Singapore and create roots here. From an overall perspective, I always say that the LL.M. opens many doors and fosters opportunities that, if you put some effort and use it well, can take you to anywhere you want."
