

PANTHÉON-ASSAS
UNIVERSITÉ
INTERNATIONAL

Bachelor of Laws, LL.B. (Hons)*

— MAURITIUS —

Assas International was set up by Paris-Panthéon-Assas University to run its international programmes at its campuses in Dubai, Mauritius, Paris and Singapore. The three-year LL.B. Honours Programme is designed to meet the requirements of students who intend to pursue postgraduate studies or a career, in either civil law or common law jurisdictions, or in Private/Public international law practice. After the first year, students may choose between Optional Streams focusing either on domestic law or modules with a more global outreach – ‘the global stream’ may be of interest to either local or international students.

The objectives of our LL.B. programme are: equip students with all necessary skills required to pursue postgraduate courses in law or other related fields; train students for a career in the public or private sector at national or international levels; enable students to follow Vocational Courses for law practitioners.

International Expertise

75% of the Faculty are professors from the Paris campus
25% are Mauritian law practitioners

Taught in English

All lectures and tutorials within the LL.B. programme are conducted in English

Adaptability

Optional streams will provide local and international students with an opportunity to adapt to the needs of different legal systems and/or career paths

Career Opportunities

The comprehensive programme enables graduates to follow vocational courses for prospective law practitioners or academic studies for other legal careers

Dipsheekha LOOLCHAND

Bachelor of Laws, LL.B. (Hons)' 2021

"Being from a scientific background, law was not my chosen career path, it was actually an uncharted area which I was scared to venture into but I was confident enough to take up the challenge (...). It may have been the best decision that I've taken up until now. As a law graduate there are many doors (...) which open up and we are not constrained career wise to be a barrister, attorney or notary as the legal sector is very broad."

Jonathan CHANG KAI

Bachelor of Laws, LL.B. (Hons)' 2019

"I am currently a Legal Executive at a highly reputed independent transactional and dispute resolution law firm in Mauritius. The LL.B. has equipped me with practical skills and knowledge which I am applying in everyday practice at work. The course helped further enhance my soft skills such as communication, teamwork, critical thinking and problem solving, which are lifelong skills, desirable in all professions, including the legal profession. I am also able to cope with the highly fast-paced work environment and I believe that it is partly due to the fact that the rigour and intensity of this law course has made me develop a strong work ethic."

Fidélino SAFARA

Bachelor of Laws, LL.B. (Hons)' 2020

"I am a Malagasy, I have 25 years old and choosing to pursue the Bachelor of Laws, LL.B. (Hons) delivered by Université Panthéon-Assas was quite an evidence because this university is often described as the top law school of France. Graduating from the Bachelor of Laws, LL.B. (Hons) was very helpful for me, (...) it is an honour and a pride to have this degree, it also facilitates application for different universities because of its value, and last but not least it is a relevant background when you have to apply for internship or a work."
