[Global AI Compliance]

EU AI Act: Implications for Lawyers Inside and Outside the EU

DATE: Monday 14th July 2025

From 2:30pm to 5:45pm, Singapore Time (GMT+8)

Location: Assas campus, Singapore – ONLINE ATTENDANCE IS ALSO AVAILABLE

Gain practical insights into the implementation of the newly adopted European AI Act and its immediate extraterritorial implications for legal practices across the EU and non-EU jurisdictions, including Singapore.

This essential 3-hour workshop arms Singapore-based and international lawyers with actionable insights into the European AI Act, which came into force in August 2024 and will be fully applicable by August 2026. As Singapore strengthens its position as Asia's AI hub, understanding this landmark legislation is no longer optional—it's imperative for legal practitioners advising tech companies and multinationals with EU market access. With specific compliance deadlines now approaching, Singapore's legal community must master both immediate requirements and forthcoming obligations to maintain their clients' competitive edge. The Act's sweeping extraterritorial reach and severe penalties directly impact Singapore-based AI developers, financial institutions, and multinational corporations engaging with European markets or data. This practical session cuts through regulatory complexity to deliver a thorough analysis of the Act's structure, official definitions, and four-tier risk classification system.

Participants will gain Singapore-relevant compliance strategies, understand enforcement mechanisms already activated, and learn to develop strategic roadmaps for clients navigating this challenging regulatory landscape. By workshop conclusion, you'll possess practical frameworks that enhance your value proposition as legal advisors in Singapore's increasingly AI-focused business environment.
