EXECUTIVE PROGRAMME 2026

Economic Sanctions and Export Controls

SPEAKER'S PROFILE

Camille MAYET

Of Counsel – Stephenson Harwood

Camille Mayet is an Of Counsel in the Ethics, Investigations & Criminal Defense practice at Stephenson Harwood, based in Paris and advising clients globally.

She focuses on complex cross-border white-collar, enforcement and compliance matters, with deep, market-recognised expertise in economic sanctions, export controls, anti-money laundering and anti-corruption. Camille regularly assists multinational companies, financial institutions and high-risk sector clients in navigating EU, US (OFAC), Chinese and multi-jurisdictional sanctions regimes, assessing extraterritorial exposure, and designing pragmatic, risk-based compliance frameworks. Her export control experience includes classification and licensing of dual-use goods and technologies, transactional due diligence, and the development of robust internal controls for global supply chains.

She also has substantial experience conducting and resolving international internal investigations—from fact-finding and stakeholder management to the assessment of criminal, administrative and civil risks, and the design of strategic responses to authorities across jurisdictions.

A member of the Paris Bar, Camille advises clients worldwide and is accustomed to supporting organizations operating in Europe and Asia on high-stakes, sensitive compliance challenges.
