Bachelor of Laws, LL.B. (Hons)*

— MAURITIUS —

Assas International was set up by Paris-Panthéon-Assas University to run its international programmes at its campuses in Mauritius, Paris and Singapore. The three-year LL.B. Honours Programme is designed to meet the requirements of students who intend to pursue postgraduate studies or a career, in either civil law or common law jurisdictions, or in Private/Public international law practice. After the first year, students may choose between Optional Streams focusing either on domestic law or modules with a more global outreach – 'the global stream' may be of interest to either local or international students.

The objectives of our LL.B. programme are: equip students with all necessary skills required to pursue postgraduate courses in law or other related fields; train students for a career in the public or private sector at national or international levels; enable students to follow Vocational Courses for law practitioners.

International Expertise
75% of the Faculty are professors

Izza Khan KHODABOCUS
LL.B. Alumni 2026

"Choosing Paris-Panthéon-Assas University in Mauritius was an opportunity to experience the prestige of a French university while studying closer to home. What began as an uncertain journey turned into an experience that helped me grow, build confidence and discover my potential. When I look back, I am proud of how far I have come and excited about how far I can still go. My advice to future students is simple: trust the process, step out of your comfort zone and embrace every opportunity. You may be surprised by what you can achieve. After my LL.B., I aspire to qualify as a barrister in the UK, specialise in international arbitration and eventually return to Mauritius to serve my community."

Laeticia ALBERT
LL.B. Alumni 2023

"Enrolled in a demanding programme at Paris-Panthéon-Assas University, I was able to combine academic rigour with a passion for law. This journey was not solely theoretical, as I also had the opportunity to take part in mock trials, seminars, and group projects, which enriched my practical understanding of the law. After taking my first steps in the legal field at Paris-Panthéon-Assas University, I continued my path by enrolling in the Legal Professional Vocational Courses (LPVC). Today, equipped with this academic and professional experience, I am currently undertaking my pupillage to become a barrister, ready to take on the challenges of this demanding profession."

Lou IVARS
LL.B. Alumni 2023

"The LL.B. in Mauritius has allowed me to enter a very selective Master's in International and European Law, and to pursue a Master 2 in Business Law. I am now preparing for the French Bar, specialising in International and European Law. This experience has brought me out of my comfort zone. Studying in Mauritius gave me a more personal connection with professors and students, while discovering the dual legal system of civil law and common law. Learning about comparative contract law and different legal systems was particularly enriching. The LL.B. offers international exposure, new connections and opportunities, while helping you diversify your legal profile."
