Moreover, as the EU is continuously expanding and deepening economic exchange and cross-border legal relationships with the rest of the world, also non-member States of the EU increasingly need lawyers with high expertise in EU law."

Katharina GIRBINGER
Class of 2024

"The LL.M. in European Law was an enrichment in every respect. Academically, the program was extremely diverse, not only due to the different areas of EU law that were taught, but also thanks to the various professors from the Paris-Panthéon-Assas university as well as from other universities all over Europe. The possibility to choose a seminar taught in French or to write a paper allowed students to individualize the program according to their preferences. The size of the seminars led to lively interaction and exciting discussions. Highlights included study trips to Luxembourg, Brussels and Strasbourg – those also gave us some practical insights into how European law works in practice and what career opportunities there are in this area. Thanks to the LL.M. I met inspiring people from all over the world."

Willem Lahaye
Class of 2025

"This LL.M. was a perfect addition to my curriculum as a student. Alongside courses taught by some of the most distinguished professors in Europe, the LL.M. in European Law offers a rich program of study trips to key European institutions such as the Court of Human Rights in Strasbourg, the European Parliament in Brussels, and the Court of Justice in Luxembourg. Moreover, it is inspiring to engage with a diverse group of young law students from all over the world, from Iceland to China. All of this takes place in the beautiful setting of Paris, where we had the opportunity to explore its culture and debate like French philosophers in the shadow of the Panthéon. My year was filled with academic enrichment, friendships that extended beyond the classroom, and joyful memories."

Linah LEUTERS

"The LL.M. in European Law at Université Panthéon-Assas has broadened my horizons in many different ways. First of all, I was able to deepen my expertise in the substantial EU law, but also to gain insights into new areas due to the broad curriculum. It has provided me with a valuable perspective on the EU's general approach and fundamental values. Not only have I enjoyed learning from excellent professors with great expertise in their various fields, but also from fellow students from all over the world. Interacting with inspiring people from different legal systems while forming friendships has made the experience even better than I ever imagined it could be."
